PASSOVER MEALS DISTRIBUTED TO COMMUNITY MEMBERS TO MARK THE HOLIDAY

WEST PALM BEACH, FL – March 25, 2021 – Approximately 60 volunteers from Ferd & Gladys Alpert Jewish Family Service (Alpert JFS), The Kind Kitchen of Palm Beach (Kind Kitchen), and the Jewish Federation of Palm Beach County's Jewish Volunteer Center (JVC) packaged or delivered meals for approximately 500 people throughout Palm Beach County for the Jewish holiday of Passover on March 25, 2021. Drivers donned masks and gloves, and practiced social distancing. They safely delivered festive, traditional meals, a Passover card, Seder plate, guide to the holiday, and Kiddush cup to each household for the holiday commemorating the Hebrews' liberation from slavery in Egypt that begins at sundown on Saturday, March 27, and ends on Sunday, April 4.

Meals of gefilte fish and horseradish, salad, chicken, brisket, kugel (a baked casserole side dish), tzimmes (a carrot and dried fruit stew), cake and grape juice that reached clients of Alpert JFS' Holocaust Survivors Assistance program were funded through KAVOD. The organization partners with Jewish family services and other organizations that work with survivors, providing assistance with whatever emergency or day-to-day needs that they have.

"This marks the second year that we have partnered together as a community to provide Passover meals from The Kind Kitchen," said Alpert JFS Director of Long Term Care Jennifer Escobar. "I can't think of a more important mission than to be able to allow our clients to enjoy holiday traditions during a year that has been challenging for so many. We are grateful for this collaboration and for all the staff and volunteers who make these special days possible."

"Passover is a holiday filled with symbolism; my favorite is the charoset (a paste made of fruits and nuts that is on the Seder plate, representing the mortar that the Hebrews needed to work with during their enslavement), with its flavorful ingredients symbolic of all of our volunteers merging together to deliver holiday meals throughout the community," said Alpert JFS Director of Volunteer Leadership Belinda Lasky. "The joy and appreciation on the faces of recipients demonstrates the importance of these holiday rituals."

"We left Egypt in a hurry, with dough that baked in the sun, turning into matzah, which is symbolic of humility and selflessness," said Chani Ezagui, of Kind Kitchen. "These honorable traits are exhibited by our volunteers, who put themselves aside for others, ensuring that our festive Seder dinners reach hundreds of people, enabling them to rejoice in our liberty. We serve dinners throughout Passover week, with an additional 400 people benefiting."

"It is inspiring and humbling to receive such strong community support for providing holiday meals to hundreds who are homebound," shared Program Director for the Jewish Federation of Palm Beach County's Jewish Volunteer Center Melissa Hudson. "We are grateful for our growing funding partnership with The Kind Kitchen of Palm Beach, and are hopeful we can bring even more holiday and Shabbat meals to those in our community who desperately need them."

Additionally, on March 18, Alpert JFS' Kosher Food Pantry distributed Passover baskets to agency clients filled with boxes of matzo, low-sodium matzo ball soup, gefilte fish, canned carrots, canned peas and potatoes, kosher-for-
